ALUMNI MEMBERS

Join us at the December 15th meeting for pizza, pasta and lasagna. Come celebrate another wonderful year of helping our Police Department and great City. As of November 30th, we have given our Police Department and City 5,348 volunteer hours. So thanks to all of our wonderful volunteers that give their time so unselfishly. You are truly an asset to this organization and you are greatly appreciated!

If you would like to bring a yummy dessert to the December 15th meeting, please do so.

See Page 5 for important reminders for Alumni Members.

The Influence Question: Will You Grow or Plateau?

Seldom does someone consciously choose to stop growing. Yet we all know people whose influence has leveled off or gone into decline. Why do hard-working, well-intentioned leaders plateau? How can people ascend the levels of influence throughout their careers, but then suddenly stop climbing? About five years ago I facilitated an all-day roundtable with 15 leaders. During Q&A, a very successful leader, a man who had done wonders with his organization, spoke up to voice a concern. "John," he said, "the last two years I've hit a plateau. For the first time in many years, I've stopped growing as a leader. Could you help me?" After prodding him with a few questions, I diagnosed his problem. As a leader, he had accomplished all of his goals! His company was bigger than he had ever anticipated it to be, it was reaching more customers than he had ever hoped to reach, and revenue was coming in higher than he could ever have imagined. Instead of concentrating on continual growth, he had stagnated after hitting all of his goals.

Goal-Conscious Versus Growth-Conscious

I have discovered that goal-conscious people plateau more often and for longer stretches than people who are growth-conscious. I'm certainly not saying, "don't have goals." I have goals, you have goals, and there's nothing wrong with goals. But I am saying that there is something more important than setting goals. If you're goal-conscious, then you focus on a destination—a sales target, a prestigious position, or a certain level of income. Whereas goal-conscious people lock onto a destination, growth-conscious people focus on the journey. They see the big picture, and they understand that success comes through a process. If you're goal-conscious, you motivate people. You put a target in front of your team and drive them to achieve it. If you're growth-conscious, then you're more concerned about maturing your people. Outcomes, while important, cease to be the sole determinant of success to a growth-conscious leader. He or she is more concerned with improvement, progress, and learning the right lessons.

If you're goal-conscious then your measures of success are seasonal. In other words, you have a time period during which you're focused on reaching the next level. If you fail, it's easy to get discouraged and to derail temporarily as a result of the setback. If you succeed, it's tempting to coast on your recent accomplishment. However, when you're growth-conscious, you're a life-long learner. Win or lose, rain or shine, growth-conscious leaders press on toward their potential all of the time—not just in spurts.

Leaders Develop Daily, Not in a Day

Growth occurs during a process, not by arriving at a destination. In my book The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership, I talk about the Law of Process, which says, "Leaders develop daily, not in a day." It's human nature to overestimate the event and underestimate the process. We want instant results, but instead of focusing our attention on the endpoint, we would be wise to make the most of the present day.

Summary

Influence and personal growth are intertwined. When you quit growing, you relinquish the privilege of leadership. You simply can't take others to a place you've never been yourself. To keep your influence growing, trade a goals-oriented mindset for a growth-conscious way of thinking. Goal-conscious people get wrapped up in a destination, and consequently they are in danger of reaching a plateau in their personal development. Hitting goals causes them to coast, while missing targets causes them to mope. In contrast, growth-conscious individuals put goals into proper perspective. The path they're traveling matters more to them than the place where they're going.

FROM THE CHIEF

It is the Holiday Season again! I hope your holidays are full of family, friends and fun! Here are a few truths I've stumbled across in my journey.

1. If you have your health you have treasure beyond your wildest dream.
2. If you have someone who loves you that's worth more than all the wealth money can buy.
3. If you give of yourself you will attract people who love you.
4. If you live to serve others you will never be alone.
5. If you think you can't go on, think again.
6. If you can't find peace, the first place to look for the reason is in the mirror.
7. If you let go of the past, the future will become what you want it to be.
8. If you seek fortune, fame and power you may well get what you want, and all that goes with it.
9. If you are afraid to fail you will never succeed.
10. If you are just waiting to be hurt or insulted, it won't take long.

I will leave you the words of President Theodore Roosevelt:

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, and comes up short again and again, because there is no effort without error or shortcomings; who knows the great enthusiasms; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

Theodore Roosevelt

I thank each of you for all you do, together we are not cold timid souls, we are in the arena and at times we are marred by dust sweat and blood. I cannot think of another group of people I would rather be in the arena with than all of us here at the Euless Police Department. I wish the best to you and your families.

Happy Hanukkah Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year!

Your Servant,
Mike

From the President — Rosemarie Stevens

Dear Friends,

The year is nearly over, and it has been an active one. Last month, we saw our membership grow as we welcomed new members from the second CFPA class. We have had many opportunities to be of service to the Police Department, and you have served well.

In December, we have two pressing matters to attend to – voting for the 2010 budget and the new Executive Board. After which, we can enjoy each other and a little pizza.

May the remainder of the year bring you joy, and may you have a very Happy New Year.

Thank you for being you.

Rosemarie

ALUMNI CORNER

Spotlight on Dawn Nisbet

Interviewed by Jerrie Keller and Faye Stinneford

Dawn is a graduate of CPA Class 24. She was born in Saginaw, Michigan on June 12th and has one sister. Dawn has been married to Randall for 6 years - ahhhh newlyweds – and has lived in Euless for six years. She has no children unless you count the furred and feathered variety. She does not elaborate on what type or how many, so next time you see her ask her about her about her furred and feathered kiddos.

Some of his favorite things are sailing, dune buggies, gardening and she regularly takes cooking classes. (If she needs to whip up some homework I'm sure she can bring it to any meeting and we would be happy to eat it for her). For Thanksgiving her Cornbread dressing with jalapeño, bacon and pecans was VERY tasty. She must love to read as she could not pick just one favorite book. Her favorite place to travel is Michigan to visit with her Family. Bearing this in mind maybe that's where her sister lives.

When we asked Dawn what made her join the Alumni Association she advised she wanted to stay involved. Her favorite thing about the class and the Alumni Association are the people. Finally, someone who did not like the shooting range the best. Dawn is a woman of many words obviously because when we asked her what she would like the Alumni Association to know about her she replied ???.

Dawn has worked for Educare for nearly 17 years as the Quality Assurance Specialist for North Texas. Educare provides services for disabled persons.

Budget Committee

Sandi Jones reminded everyone that the 2010 Proposed Budget was in the newsletter. She announced there was a modification to the budget printed in the newsletter. A line was added for the Electronics Recycling Program under Income and $500 was added to the Police Chief Wish Projects expense line item to balance out the budget. Comments from the floor:

Lou Baum proposed we add an expense line for the TCPAAA Convention to pay for the highest ranking officer's registration and hotel bill that attends the convention.

Sandi addressed the issue and stated that it's not in the By-Laws where a person from the ECPAAA has to attend the convention. It's strictly on a voluntary basis and the Budget Committee felt like the money can be used elsewhere.

Rosemarie Stevens also addressed the issue since it was brought up in the Board meeting. She said in the past when we had the Arbor Daze fund raiser and had more funds available, we were able to pay for this expense.

Karen Duncan stated that when the Chief and/or Liaison Officer attend the convention, they pay for their own registration and expenses.

FUND RAISING:

Sandi Jones would like to get a committee together to come up with some new fund raisers. She will be contacting some people to ask if they would like to serve on the committee.

Julie Watkins asked about the Freddy's Restaurant fund raiser. About three months ago, Faye Stinneford talked about a potential fund raiser where the ECPAAA picks a night and a percent of the sales from that night will be given to the ECPAAA. Tim Stinneford was asked to follow-up with Faye, since she was not at the meeting.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES: J.R. reminded the volunteers who signed up to work C.R.U.D. on November 21st to be there between 8:00 and 8:30 a.m.

ECPAAA DECEMBER MEETING:

Rosemarie Stevens announced to the membership that pizza will be brought in for the December meeting. It's a way of saying thanks to everyone who worked hard throughout the year. The Membership can bring desserts if they choose to do so.

MINUTES/TREASURER'S REPORT:

Tim Stinneford made a motion to accept the October Minutes, second by J.R. Goad. Motion passed. Tim Stinneford made a motion to approve the October Treasurer's Report, second by Sherri Browning. Motion passed.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:40 pm.

OUR HEROES

By Terry Martin
Crime Victims Assistant Volunteer

HOW CAN WE SAY THANKS FOR ALL THAT YOU DO
FOR KEEPING US SAFE EVERY YEAR THROUGH AND THROUGH.
THERE ARE NO WORDS THAT CAN EVER EXPRESS
OUR APPRECIATION AND GRATEFULNESS.

THE CROOKS MAY NOT LIKE ALL THAT YOU DO
THEY'RE BUSY RUNNING AND HIDING FROM YOU.
THEY MIGHT TRY TO RUN AND THEN TRY TO HIDE
BUT, YOU CATCH THEM, CUFF THEM, THEN GIVE THEM A RIDE.

YOU PUT THEM IN A PLACE WHERE THEY DON'T LIKE TO BE
AND GIVE THEM A TASTE OF THEIR OWN MISERY.
THE GOOD CITIZENS OF EULESS TAKE SO MUCH PRIDE
KNOWING EACH ONE OF YOU ARE THERE BY OUR SIDE.

REMEMBER, PLEASE PUT YOUR SAFETY GEAR ON WE DON'T WISH ANY OF YOU COMING TO HARM.
WHEN CHRISTMAS TIME COMES AROUND EVERY YEAR
WE WISH YOU A SAFE ONE AND A HEARTY GOOD CHEER.

THIS SIMPLE VERSE IS OUR WAY OF PRAISE
YOU ARE THE GOOD, THE STRONG AND THE BRAVE.
YOU ARE ALL VERY SPECIAL AND DEAR TO US ALL WE TRUST AND LOVE YOU FOR ANSWERING THE CALL.

NOT EVERYONE CAN DO WHAT YOU DO EVERY DAY
SOLVING THE PROBLEMS THAT STAND IN YOUR WAY.
SO TO YOU WE WILL OFFER OUR THANKS ONCE AGAIN
FOR YOUR FAITHFUL SERVICE AND BEING OUR FRIEND.

DEDICATED DECEMBER 25, 2009 TO THE BRAVE POLICE FORCE OF EULESS
WHO PUT THEIR LIVES ON THE LINE EACH AND EVERY DAY.
THERE ARE NO WORDS TO EXPRESS OUR GRATITUDE AND APPRECIATION.
THANKS TO EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU
